Telex World Letter 666400

In an age when efficiency in communications is an important factor to a business' success, MCI International offers Telex World LetterSM, to keep your communications cost-effective without sacrificing the impact of direct mail correspondence.

From time to time, you may have the need to reach correspondents all over the world. If your correspondents have telex capacity, it's easy for you to reach them. But what if they do not? MCI International has the solution to this communications problem: Telex World Letter.

This service transforms any message from your telex terminal into a professional looking document that arrives at its destination through the regular postal system. This MCI[®] service allows you to expand your communications reach far beyond its present telex scope, making messaging easy and efficient.

A DIFFERENT TYPE OF TELEX MESSAGE

FLEXIBILITY

By using Telex World Letter, you can send your correspondents who are inaccessible by telex an impressive laser-printed document. In addition, you have a selection of 15 different letterheads that you can choose from, depending on the occasion. Your message is electronically transmitted to the MCI laser print site nearest the delivery address. Upon its arrival, state-of-the-art laser printers produce your documents on quality bond paper with a specially designed Telex World Letter letterhead that ensures a high impact for your correspondence.
